LETTER FROM THE DIRECTOR

Dear Parents:

It appears to be a slow news week, so I thought I'd take the opportunity to mention a few things that have been on our minds lately:

- After school: Please do not forget that elementary students who are on campus after school hours should be supervised at all times by an adult. Middle School and Secondary students have a bit more flexibility to be on campus after school hours, but they should spend their time in places that are appropriate, not distracting of those who are actively working during this time, and staying out of areas in which they cannot be observed by adults and building staff.
- No students, at any time of day, may be in the gyms or on the soccer fields without staff supervision.
- Driving on campus: Please do not forget that we are a school and that there are children on campus. Speed should be kept to a minimum. If you are accelerating between points on school campus, you are putting children's safety at risk.
- Spring attire: think about layers during this time of year so that your child will be comfortable; it can be cool in the morning and quite warm by the afternoon

And, one piece of news coming up. Mr. Jordan Hattar, the director of the organization Help4Refugees will be at Kyiv International School on April 4th and 5th to speak about his experiences and ways that we can help with the refugee crisis around the world. He will be visiting several of our classes and giving presentations to a couple of larger groups, followed by a presentation to interested parents and teachers in the afternoon of Wednesday, April 5. We will provide information about the location of this presentation a bit later.

That's all for this week. I hope you all have a safe and enjoyable weekend.

Eben Plese,
KIS Director

Friday Bake Sales

Every Friday, Ms. Zoya and Mrs. Fremont have Friday Bake Sales to raise money for helping families in the village. This month, we have been selling doughnuts and focusing on helping this wonderful family of Yana. She was born healthy, but because of vaccination, has been in the wheelchair ever since. The family lives in the village, and can't afford medicine as looking after Yana takes all their time. There is a medicine that proved to help Yana react to motion and decrease seizures, and it costs about $100/month. So far, we were able to help them get 3 months worth of medicine and send Yana to ipotherapy (a 10 day therapy with horses, massages, etc) that seems to work! The family is beyond thankful for your support! We will continue having bake sales every Friday. Thank you for making a difference, and see you there!

Secondary By-Law Day Update

On Saturday, March 18, a dozen civic-minded Secondaries -- SecStuCo members Dogukan (Treasurer), Anne (President), Anton (Sec IV Rep), Divyam (Sec III Rep) and Jack (Sec II Rep) and volunteers Gleb, Sasha, Max, Adi, Nastya, Sanya, Maya, Anamarija, and Michelle -- gave up a precious weekend to make a lasting contribution to KIS's Secondary Student Council, beginning the long, arduous process of writing a constitution and by-laws.

SecStuCo Treasurer and Bylaw Summit Chairman Dogukan spearheaded the effort, which he started by locating and evaluating examples of other student councils' documentation.

Eventually, a template was chosen, and Saturday's meeting was called.

After everyone in attendance had been briefed on the process and the goals, the example document was read and discussion started. The template's twelve articles were divided up so that each of four breakout groups had a roughly equal amount of ground to cover. After extensive and wide-ranging discussions on each point in the articles, the big group reconvened and shared the substance of their conversations.

Although there were plenty of lively, impromptu debates that touched on issues of representation, as well as the scope and nature of how the council can and should best serve the student body, the talks were uniformly productive and collegial. At the end of the day, the mood was upbeat, the group felt strongly that a good start had been made, and confidence was high that the work could be completed by the end of this school year.

Now, the document has been thoroughly dissected, questions and concerns have been identified, and some consensus has been reached. Ideally, the wrangling over the philosophy and goals of the new constitution will be completed in time for a referendum vote by all KIS Secondaries, tentatively set to coincide with spring executive elections.

"Building Bridges" Pre-Visit Establishes Connections

Eight National Honor Society (NHS) members visited the Donbass Refugee Center for internally displaced people on Saturday, March 18. The center provides free housing, vocational training, and physical/emotional rehabilitation to individuals and families facing a variety of significant challenges. This pre-visit served to introduce the group service project, which will be held on April 1. The NHS members met residents, toured the facility, and presented donations of buckwheat, sugar, and rice. The purpose of this pre-visit was to form a relationship with the center in preparation for the group service project. NHS is excited to return to the center on April 1 and continue building on that relationship.
